Godparent Registration Information

The Role of Godparents

Peace of Christ to you! You are being asked to be a godparent for a child being baptized at our parish. The parents and our Church are asking you to fulfill a unique role for this child. This is a special calling for you! You are professing your willingness, readiness, and ability to help the parents of this child bring him/her up in the faith and grow in a relationship with Christ and the Church.

These parents and the parish community are asking you to set an example for this godchild in living out your faith, in sharing your faith with your godchild, and in praying for your godchild. Being a godparent is different from being a relative, a friend, or good acquaintance of the parents, though these are all beautiful things! A godparent has the special role of helping the parents share the joy, truth, and light of their Catholic faith with their child, and in providing further example and guidance in the godchild's life.

Baptism is the beginning of our lifelong journey of faith. As we grow, our faith lives change—sometimes we feel very close to God, sometimes we don't. Sometimes we have many questions, and sometimes we feel like we understand it all. Throughout the ups and downs, Christ is with us! You will help these parents in passing on our Catholic faith to the child, so that each child may grow in his or her relationship with Christ, and freely profess it as an adult. You will be the presence of Christ and the Catholic community to this child.

As you prepare to be a godparent, you should ask yourself if you are indeed ready to take on this responsibility. Are you able to share your faith? Are you an active member of your parish? Will you be able to give your godchild the attention and care he/she needs? If you are someone who is already actively living your faith, these answers may come easily. If not, now may be an opportunity to grow in your own faith, so you can pass it on your godchild. Or, you may decide that you are not ready to be a godparent at this time. So, what does a godparent do? Godparents are active in their godchild's life in many ways.

You can prepare with the parents and be there for the baptism! You will be asked if you are ready to assist the parents in raising the child in the practice of the faith, to which you respond with the other godparent, "We are". You may be asked to clothe the child in the white baptismal garment, which symbolizes the child's new purity in Christ. You may be asked to hold the baptismal candle, and to help “keep the light of Christ burning in the child’s heart.”

After the big day, you can make it a tradition to remember the child’s baptismal day every year—the child’s “birthday” into the Body of Christ. Call your godchild, visit, or send a card. Spend time with your godchild. Each year, this day can be a special celebration for you.

Keep your godchild in your prayers and share your faith with the child. Prayer is always a gift to anyone! You can also share your faith by giving the child age appropriate books, teaching him/her about saints, attending the child’s first Communion and Confirmation, and sharing other important moments in the child’s life. A godparent has a lifelong bond with his/her godchild, and it is a special and wonderful relationship.

Why is it important to be registered at a parish?

Our faith journey is not walked alone. One of the joys of being a Christian is that we are one body in Christ and we are connected as a family, with God as our Father. Active parish membership indicates that we take our faith life seriously. We need a community of believers to support and nourish our faith life, and with whom we celebrate the Eucharist. We ask you to show your involvement and membership in your parish to express your commitment to the larger Church community. It is not merely another loop to jump through. Active parish membership helps us to get connected and stay connected to our Church! So, it’s more than merely signing a form and filling out your mailing address. It’s standing up to say that you will not just go to Mass, but that you want to be an active member in the parish, contributing to the life of the community. The people make the parish, so your life gives Christ’s light to others and vice versa.

What if I’m not registered at a parish?

Registering at a parish is a simple way in which we show our commitment to worshiping with the larger Church community and living out our Catholic faith. If you are not currently registered somewhere, you may take this opportunity to register at the parish where you attend. It’s also a good time to establish membership at your new location.

Thank you for your wonderful witness to Christ’s life, and God bless you now and always!
